

Fulfilled Prophecies of the Bible

Compiled by Karen Sue Nyquist
(See resources on back.)

God explains that His prophecies are predicting what He plans to do. “Remember the former things, those of long ago; I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is none like me. I make known the end from the beginning, from ancient times, what is still to come. I say, ‘My purpose will stand, and I will do all that I please.’” (Isaiah 46:9-10 NIV)

Sometimes, God assigned various animals to represent nations in His prophecies. Later, these nations choose those exact animals to represent themselves. When Bible scholars compare history and archeology with the fulfilled prophecies, they understand which nations God was prophesying about. (Sometimes, there is disagreement among the scholars, especially when referring to modern nations, like the United States and Great Britain.)

Questions about the God of Prophecy:

1. Does God know you? - The one and only God knows the end from the beginning. He also knew you, before you were born. “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you; Before you were born I sanctified you; I ordained you . . .” (Jeremiah 1:5) Why did God make you? What is your purpose? You find out, you will have to get to know Him.

2. What does God think about you? - “For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the Lord, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope.” (Jeremiah 29:11)

3. How does God feel about you? - “Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love; Therefore with lovingkindness I have drawn you.” (Jeremiah 31:3)

What about your future? Your sins? All of us have sinned. God knew we would need someone to pay for our sins. “For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.” (John 3:16)

“To Him (Jesus) all the prophets witness that, through His name, whoever believes in Him will receive remission (payment) of sins.” (Acts 10:43)

Jesus prophesied that He is coming back. “I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also.” (John 14:3)

Would you like to be ready when He comes? We all need to: “confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.” (Romans 10:9)

Suggested Prayer: “Dear Jesus, please show me the truths in the Bible and help me believe in them. Forgive me for all my sins and cleanse me from all my sinful ways. I repent from trying to live my life my way and ask You to be my Lord. Make me the kind of person You want me to be. Right now, Jesus, I open my heart and receive You as my personal Lord and Savior. I want to have a new vibrant relationship with God. AMEN!”

Name _____ Date _____

Now that you have asked Jesus into your heart, He will start revealing Himself to you. But to steadily improve your relationship with God, spend time with Him. Start talking (praying) to Him. Read His book, the Bible, where He reveals Himself even more clearly. Daily, ask Him to become involved in your life and request His advice, direction, even correction. Ask Him what is your purpose. Obey Him when He reveals His will to you. It will feel so right! Spend time with others who love God too. Go to a good church where you feel God’s presence, they preach the Bible, and you can fellowship with other believers. We learn much about God from each other.
